Etiwanda students push hugs, not drugs

Drug-free life focus of Red Ribbon Week, Oct. 22-29

Deputy Paula Rago and Denise Garland present buttons to principal Linda Schneider, Jarvis Pahl and students.

Etiwanda High School students have gotten a head start on their valley counterparts in a planned effort to publicize hugs not drugs.

The school, which already has five anti-drug and peer pressure groups established on campus, received 2,500 ribbons and 2,500 buttons from Denise Garland and Deputy Paula Rago of the Rancho Cucamonga Sheriff's Station. The recent visit to the school was coordinated through Citizens Against Substance Abuse.

The ribbons will help publicize the statewide program Red Ribbon Week, Oct. 22-29, where school districts, teachers, students, parents and law enforcement officers promote a drug-free life.

And to help give the presentation a little extra boost band members held a mini rally. Members Gail Meredith, Anthony Arnold, Rick Steiner, Paul Fahring and Michael Raine showed their school spirit and their enthusiasm for the project.

School campuses throughout the area plan individual activities. At Etiwanda High, activities already are planned. Students involved with the anti-drug programs Friday Night Out, Straight Edge, Stay Alive, Peer Counseling and Choices are gearing up their plans to bring home the message "you have choices in your life and you can say no to drugs," said Sergio Ramirez, who is active in all the groups.

"The group Choices is new. We talk to freshmen about drugs and peer pressure and hopefully what we say helps them make their choice in life," he said after accepting the promotional buttons.

Student Yvette Zabala said exact plans for the week have not been completed, but the students are waiting to help where possible.

And the school's involvement doesn't just stop at the student level. Jarvis Pahl, school administrative assistant, said staff and faculty members also are preparing to take an active part in observing the week.

Garland said she was very happy to see the commitment to the cause shown by Etiwanda students, but students throughout the valley also are participating.

"To some degree we went to Etiwanda High because it is a newer school, but it's one with very organized student activities that are anti-drug oriented. The school is really innovative. I'm very appreciative of the students' efforts," Garland said.

In addition to school activities, the city of Ontario, the Ontario Police Department and Assemblyman Chuck Bader, R-Pomona, are working to organize a race to promote the week.

Garland said the sheriff's department also is involved in community lectures at school.

British Bull Dog Pub unknowingly violates law

By David Madsen

Nearly a year after the British Bull Dog Pub in Upland first opened its doors, its owners were stunned to learn they were violating city code by offering live entertainment.

"We bought this place in February of 1987. The prior owners always had live entertainment ... DJs' sandwich bar (the former occupant) had a stage with lights," said pub co-owner Ethel Melling.

Melling and partner Doris Hughlock found out a year to the month after buying the establishment, at 1667 N. Mountain Ave., that they were violating city code. They learned they had apparently been running afoul of the law while inquiring about a special permit for an event in the restaurant's outdoor patio area.

"We were told we don't have a permit for any live entertainment ... I guess we were kind of naive when we bought the place," Melling said.

The pair then applied for a permit for live entertainment and to allow dancing. They also asked for city consent to serve hard liquor in addition to the already permitted beer and wine.

However, during an Aug. 25 meeting of the Planning Commission, members of two nearby homeowner associations showed up to oppose granting the permit.

The residents voiced concerns about crime and noise increasing in the shopping center and surrounding area if drinking and dancing were allowed.

The Planning Commission denied the request to allow a full selection of alcoholic beverages, but approved allowing live entertainment and dancing.

Mayor Robert Nolan then appealed the decision to allow entertainment and dancing, while Councilman Thomas McGilloway appealed the commission's denial to serve hard liquor.

During a public hearing on Sept. 27, the council failed to reach a decision on either appeal and postponed any future action until Oct. 11.

McGilloway was absent from the meeting and Councilman Al Canestro said he wanted to wait until McGilloway was present before a vote was taken.

Councilman Frank Carpenter had made a motion to overturn the Planning Commission's decision to permit entertainment and dancing, but no vote was taken.

"We don't want to see a Fashions (nightclub) problem up there in those neighborhoods," said Carpenter.

Carpenter also argued that only the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board can grant a license for hard liquor.

"However, we can recommend to the ABC what we want them to do," said City Attorney Don Maroney.

Although a number of homeowners spoke out against granting the permit, numerous patrons and residents also testified of the "pleasant atmosphere" found at the pub.

"Without entertainment we can't make a profit and upgrade," said Melling.

She also denied accusations that the pub is the source of crime and noise.

An Upland Police report detailed a total of five incidents occurring during the past nine months at the pub.

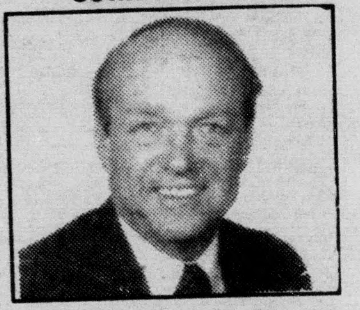
YOUR BENEFITS UNDER WORKERS' COMPENSATION



Thomas W. Moga,
Attorney At Law
(Board Certified Specialist)
OVERLOOKED INJURIES
There are many injuries that occur that are overlooked by the injured employee. In the column today, I am going to list and explain some injuries that are work related but often overlooked.
HEART ATTACKS: A heart attack can be work related. Take for example the employee who is carrying a refrigerator up a hundred steps and experiences a heart attack on the ninety-ninth step. This would be relatively easy to show that the work caused the injury and therefore the employee would be entitled to receive Workers' Compensation benefits.
Another example is the employee who during the course of an argument with his supervisor experiences a heart attack. If it can be shown that the stress of the argument of the emotional trauma of the argument triggered the heart attack, then this employee should receive Workers' Compensation.
The actual heart attack may occur at home, but if the trauma was caused at work, or by the work, then a Workers' Compensation claim should be filed.
EMOTIONAL PROBLEMS: Emotional problems such as a "nervous breakdown," depression, anxiety, high blood pressure can all be caused by your employment. School teachers dealing with young children seem to experience more emotional problems than school teachers dealing with college students. Policemen and firemen always seem to end up with high blood pressure and heart problems. The law presumes that these injuries are caused by their employment.
If you have had any of the following injuries in the last five years you probably have some money owed to you under Workers' Compensation:
1. Sprained ankles and knees.
2. Broken bones.
3. Pneumonia caused by exposure to the elements while working.
4. Lung problems, caused by exposure to chemicals.
5. Back injuries.
6. loss of hearing caused by exposure to loud noise.
7. Fights that occur as a result of the employment.
8. Neck injuries.
There is no charge for a consultation by any lawyer that practices Workers' Compensation law. If you have any questions regarding Workers' Compensation it costs you nothing to find out your benefits.

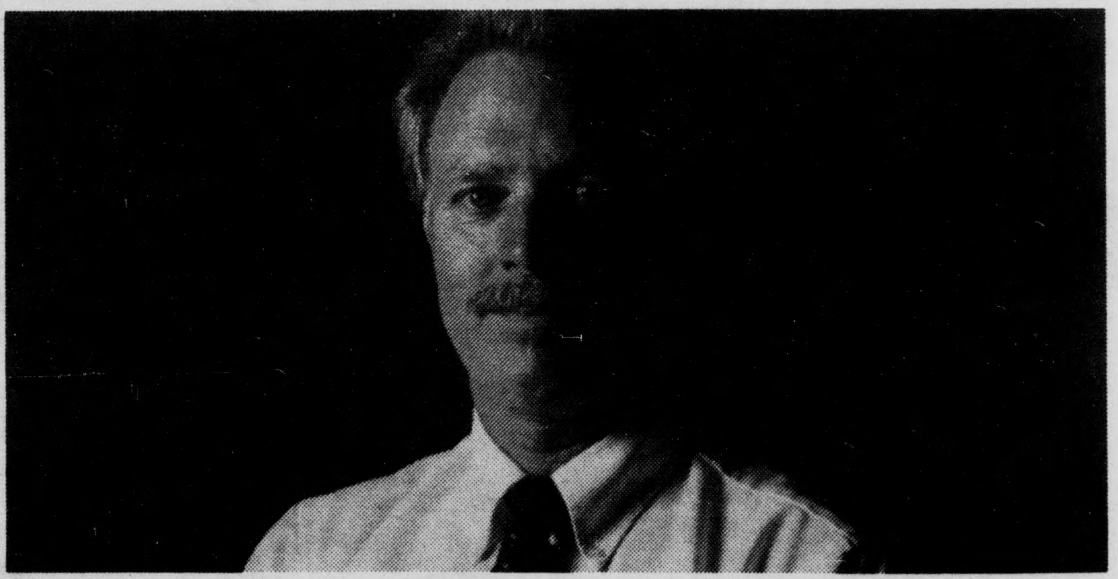
He hasn't been fired.
He's not cheating on his wife.
He's said "no" to cocaine.



So why is he getting counseling?

Watch enough television and you might start to think that you have to be fired or lose your house or your family before counseling is necessary.

But preventing the kind of stress which could lead to such personal tragedy is an important reason as well.

Take John. His college classmates voted him the most likely to succeed. Now at age 47, he has come to realize that the high income and fancy titles have more than likely passed him by.

Unfulfilled dreams and feelings of failure can cloud one's entire life. That's why John is working with the experts at the Charter Counseling Center.

Talking about and dealing with disappointments now can deflect a lot of pain and frustration later.

To find out how counseling can help you and your family, call Charter Counseling Center day or evening.

YMCA : jail-a-friend

By Suzanne Sproul
Staff Writer

Got a score to settle? Want to exact some sweet-tasting, lip-smacking, make-your-kind-of-day revenge on someone who's done you wrong?

The West End YMCA in Ontario wants to do business with you.

For the second year, the youth organization is sponsoring its Jail-a-Friend program designed to raise $20,000. The money will be used in the youth-in-community programs at the main site, Ontario-Montclair, and at the organization's three other branches in Upland, Chino and Rancho Cucammonga.

The event is scheduled Oct. 12 through 14.

For a pledge of $15, your loved ones or enemies, depending upon how charitable you are, are picked up in a limousine by a bunch of volunteer thugs. Then they're taken for a one-way ride to the Rock-Around-the-Clock Night Club adjacent to the Montclair Plaza.

In case you haven't guessed yet, the annual fund-raiser will revolve around the theme of the gangland world in the 1950s. Once picked up, you then have to plead your case to a less-than sympathetic "Boss." And what's your only ticket out? Ransom. You're given the opportunity to call family and friends and try and raise enough to get you sprung.

YMCA supporters are hoping you can raise $300 in order to part company with the "boss".

"We wanted to keep our fund-raiser fresh. Last year we did very well with a program around the theme of being arrested and just put in jail. We toyed with the idea of maybe doing a King Arthur's Camelot theme but we thought the gangster scene was perfect," said Bob Huether, YMCA general director.

Rock-Around-the-Clock manager April York said she was happy to be able to provide the setting.

"We haven't been in business here long but we're doing more and more events with groups. We're happy to help with community fund-raisers. This one is our favorite," York said.

"We're hoping to involve as many people as possible. We want it to be crazy," he said.

Participants will be given a special souvenir photo and a T-shirt commemorating the event and will be invited to a "breakout party."

For more information about volunteering or participating, call 986-5747.

NOTICE OF DEATH AND OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF JESSE MARVIN EDWARDS, aka J. MARVIN EDWARDS, aka JESSE M. EDWARDS
CASE NO. RPR 05756

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will or estate, or both, of: JESSE MARVIN EDWARDS, aka J. MARVIN EDWARDS, aka JESSE M. EDWARDS.

A PETITION has been filed by DIXIE D. HINDS in the Superior Court of California, County of San Bernardino requesting that DIXIE D. HINDS be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority allows the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain actions, however, the personal representative is required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action). The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to this petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on October 31, 1988 at 8:30 A.M. in Dept.: 6 located at: 8303 Haven Avenue, Rancho Cucamonga, California 91730.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should either appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within four months from the date of first issuance of letters as provided in section 9100 of the California Probate Code. The time for filings claims will not expire prior to four months from the date of the hearing noticed above.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a formal Request for Special Notice of the filing of an inventory and appraisement of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in section 1250 of the California Probate Code. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

Petitioner: Dixie D. Hinds, 5807 Los Arcos Way, Buena Park, CA 90620.
